PROJECTS

Food Truck Finder

December 2020

- An application that uses OpenWeatherMap and Google Places API's to let the user know what food trucks are in their area as well as the current weather conditions so they can decide whether to eat at the food truck park or just pick up their food to go.
- Languages used: HTML, CSS, Bulma CSS, JQuery

Coding Quiz

December 2020

- An application that creates a timed multiple-choice quiz for the user to take. Once the timer runs out or the user has answered all of the questions, they are shown their score and asked to input their initials. The initials, along with corresponding score, are saved locally and inserted to the quiz's leaderboard.
- Languages used: HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript
